69th Annual Convention

August 24-27, 1960

Statler-Hilton Hotel • Boston, Mass.

A.N.A. PRESIDENT

REAR ADMIRAL O. H. DODSON, U.S.N. Ret.

Detroit, Michigan

Member since 1933 Life Member 78

Board of Governors 1950-1955

First Vice President 1955-1957

President 1957-

Welcome to Boston

With little frequency have we, the Numismatists of New England, the honor of receiving the members of the American Numismatic Association in Historic and Hospitable Boston. For all of us, it is my privilege to cordially welcome each and everyone of you and to promise that your 69th Annual Convention will be both instructive and unforgettable.

Not alone are my sincere thanks due to the convention committees for their continued efforts to realize this promise, but as well to the Officers of the A.N.A. for their advice and assistance and to the Numismatic Clubs of New England for their wholehearted support of our efforts.

While you may expect a "hot" August numismatically, be sure that it will be a "cool" one otherwise, since the modern age has finally been accepted in Boston and her hotels are air conditioned.

Again, let me extend our wholehearted welcome to Boston, old in years but young in Spirit.

JAMES F. CLAPP, JR., General Chairman

B.N.S. President's Welcome

"Once again our Boston Numismatic Society will be your host club for a national American Numismatic Association Convention — the first was in 1921, then 1948 and now in 1960. We're happy you've joined us here in celebrating this convention and, in celebrating too the centennial of our beloved society.

Many of you have read the history of our society written by my late husband in 1935 in connection with our then 75th anniversary. And to quote a bit from it "Eight gentlemen met by invitation on Saturday, February 11, 1860 at the rooms of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston. Thus begins the records . . ." Its history continues to be gently and carefully kept. We have carried on their ideas and principles. However, the eight gentlemen have grown to produce a membership of many men but, alas, too few women!

Of course, this convention will break records — but it will also create many new friendships and many new ardent collectors. Just as night follows day, there is a new era of numismatic quickening. Quickening because more and more persons want to be part of a hobby that has stimulated the interest and imagination of so many persons.

This convention will be a successful and happy one only because of the members who gave of their time so unselfishly and so unstintingly."

The recently restored steeple of Boston's "Old North Church" towers above the lifelike statue of that famous patriot, Paul Revere. It was here, on April 18, 1775, that "The signal lanterns of Paul Revere warned the country of the march of the British troops to Lexington and Concord." The "Old North Church" is a favorite stopping place along Boston's famous Freedom Trail which takes visitors to Boston on a systematic walking tour of the city's many historic shrines. The original steeple was felled by hurricane "Carol" in 1954. The present steeple was rebuilt from funds provided by school children, civic, religious, and historical organizations throughout America and was dedicated on October 12, 1955. — Boston Convention and Visitors Bureau.

AWARDS FOR EXHIBITS

Members are invited to exhibit selections from their collections, either in competition for awards or non-competitive. Exhibits are protected by insurance and guards while on display.

Rules for exhibiting and judging are available from the Exhibit Committee and were published on page 420 of the April, 1957 issue of The Numismatist. The Col. Joseph Moss Memorial Plaque is awarded for first place in U. S. coins. The Amon Carter Memorial Plaque is awarded for first place in currency. The R. F. Schermerhorn Memorial Plaque is awarded for first place in foreign coins. The Edward T. Newell Memorial Plaque is awarded for first place in ancient coins. The Burton H. Saxton Memorial Award is made for first place in Medals, Orders and Decorations. Other first, second and third place awards are suitably engraved plaquettes.

Awards are made in six classes: (1) U. S. coins, including Colonials; (2) Foreign coins prior to 1500 A.D., including ancients; (3) Foreign coins after 1500 A.D.; (4) Paper Money, all countries; (5) Medals, Orders and Decorations; (6) Miscellaneous, Specialized, Odd and Curious, Mint Errors.

The Howland Wood Memorial Award is made for best exhibit at the convention, as chosen by the judges. This award may be made for an exhibit not in competition for regular awards, but it will not be given to an exhibitor who has received a previous Howland Wood Award for an exhibit in the same general classification.

Participation ribbons will be awarded to all exhibitors.

PAUL REVERE'S HOUSE

Where he lived from 1770 to 1800. This is the oldest wooden house in Boston, built in 1660. Ancient wallpaper, tremendous fireplaces and numerous other features of the Colonial period make this historical shrine a "must" for your visit to Boston.

Fogg Museum, Harvard University

Essex Institute, Salem

Boston Numismatic Society
Home Savings Bank, Tremont St.

These numismatic exhibits are on display in honor of the 69th Annual A.N.A. Convention and the 100th anniversary of the B.N.S.

In 1860, one century ago, our numismatic ancestors established the Boston Numismatic Society, a society that still flourishes and holds her head high in numismatic circles, that still lists among her members, collectors of Ancient Greek coins and modern proof sets. Humble in our tradition and Proud in our centenary, the Boston Society and the other Numismatic Clubs of New England, together with the City of Boston, the State of Massachusetts, and Numismatists of New England, extend to all Numismatists and their friends a cordial welcome and a sincere promise of an unforgettable numismatic experience at the 1960 Annual Convention of the American Numismatic Association.
